The Adventure Club Pakistan

For the training, The Ibex Club offered a special competition package, while The Adventure Club-Pakistan supervised the training/practice sessions, besides several private sessions organized by the individuals or through clubs at their own.

The competitions started on 10th. December 2010 with first qualifying round for finals. On 11th. December, i.e. International Mountain Day, the venue was exclusively decorated with welcome and advertisement banners & placards and the qualified climbers for finals, performed with support and applause of fully packed stadium with spectators and supporters. The event was widely covered by the electronic/print media, for which we are obliged as their support will strengthen our efforts to promote the activity in Pakistan.

To watch the final climbing session and to distribute awards among the winners, Federal Minister for Tourism, Mr. Ata-ur-Rehman was the Chief Guest alongwith with other high officials of Ministry of Tourism and PTDC. All the guests and the Chief Guest enjoyed the thrilling final matches with climbing of girls and boys and appreciated the efforts of The Adventure Club & Ibex Club to organize the event and lauded the services of Ibex Club to provide the facility of artificial wall, which is first of international competition level with all allied facilities. At the end of the climbing competitions, the Chief Guest distributed awards among the position holders.

Mr. Esam Khattak, the Managing Director, Ibex Club and joint organizer of the event, announced One Month Free Membership of Climbing Arena to all position holders. Mr. Tahir Imran Khan, President, The Adventure Club-Pakistan announced Free Membership of The Adventure Club-Pakistan to all Winners and further announced a 2 Days Free Intermediate Climbing Training Course to all position holders with the courtesy of the Ibex Club. He also lauded the cooperation and supervision of Mr. Altaf Malik, who dedicatedly volunteered himself for the event and made every effort to make it smooth and successful.

He also announced holding of 5th. All Pakistan Rock Climbing Competition on International Women Day from on 5-8 March 2011. This competition is being organized since 2007 on IWD and carries a prestigious reputation among climbers. A huge response is expected from climbing enthusiasts from all over the country.

Besides few individuals, following clubs/institutions participated in the competitions and got positions. The organizers are thankful for their active participation and congratulate them on winning distinctions. It is expected that in forthcoming competition, they will participate with more training and enthusiasm to secure maximum positions.
